Historical Note

Before Kentucky's statehood, slavery was introduced by the earliest settlers. Its agriculture-based economy relied heavily on slavery for farm work. Kentucky was originally Kentucky county, Virginia. It's original three counties were Jefferson, Lincoln, and Fayette and were gradually divided in the later 18th century.

Scope and Contents

This collection includes contracts, deeds of gift, and a deed of emancipation from various slaveowners in Lincoln County and Fayette County, Kentucky ranging from 1796 to 1839.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged by subject.
